

THE DANNIBLE & MCKEE INTERNSHIP

JUMP-START YOUR CAREER WITH AN INTERNSHIP AT DANNIBLE & MCKEE!

We are committed to our employees' success at every stage of the game—including our student internships. Our internship program is designed to give prospective accountants valuable, real-world experience and insight into the everyday environment of a public accounting firm.

We offer tax and audit internships throughout the year that provide the opportunity to perform meaningful, client-oriented work with a dynamic group of highly skilled professionals. You will gain exposure to various industries and clients to prepare you for employment.

Our internships will introduce you to what it's like to work at Dannible & McKee, and better yet, provide potential to transition to full-time employment.

How Is the Dannible & McKee Accounting Internship Different?

At a typical internship with a CPA firm, you will:	A D&M internship provides you with so much more!
Gain industry knowledge you won't get in a classroom.	Gain industry knowledge you won't get in a classroom in accounting, tax and assurance, along with a deeper understanding of the various industries CPA firms serve.
Identify your professional strengths and weaknesses.	Identify your professional strengths and weaknesses with access to industry experts who are excited to mentor you and provide you with advanced training.
Accumulate a network of valuable professional contacts.	Accumulate a network of valuable professional contacts who consist of industry experts, segment leaders and highly regarded professionals, all of whom have a genuine interest in your success.
Solidify a competitive advantage over other candidates to land a full-time offer.	Solidify a competitive advantage over other candidates to land a full-time offer with the flexibility to pursue your graduate degree or CPA.

Questions? Contact us at (315) 472-9127
or careers@dmcpas.com

DM DANNIBLE & MCKEE, LLP
Certified Public Accountants and Consultants

What Interns Can Expect

- Access to top industry technology and tools.
- Participate in formalized training programs.
- Gain on-the-job training by working in a dynamic, engaging environment as part of a team.
- Treatment as a full-fledged team member: contribute to meetings involving client matters.
- One-on-one support from other firm professionals through our mentoring program.
- Formal and informal feedback and documentation on performance.

About Dannible & McKee

Dannible & McKee, LLP is a leader among full-service CPA firms that delivers superior outcomes through a unique combination of highly specialized technical knowledge in industries, deep understanding of individual client's business and a commitment to personal, responsive service. We are trusted advisors that clients can rely on day-to-day for guidance, insight and a strong financial foundation to confidently make business decisions.

Our clientele consists of companies across New York State and the United States and represents a diversity of business enterprises. We are headquartered in Syracuse, New York, and have additional offices in Binghamton and Albany.

With a culture that is deeply rooted on "people first," Dannible & McKee offers an unwavering commitment to support and invest in the development of powerful employees. We have the infrastructure and resources to give you the ability to customize your career and the opportunities to take it to the next level.

The reasons for starting your career at Dannible & McKee have much to do with where you want to end up. Here, you will be empowered to find a path that complements your strengths and interests, and our collaborative work environment, vibrant culture and supportive leadership can help you get there. With us, there are no limits to your potential.

Questions? Contact us at (315) 472-9127
or careers@dmcpas.com

DM DANNIBLE & MCKEE, LLP
Certified Public Accountants and Consultants